

Home / SME / Transport Briefs: AMV; Network Rail; London Midland

Transport Briefs: AMV; Network Rail; London Midland

22nd April 2014

Share: in Share Tweet Like +1

By Duncan Tift - Deputy Editor, West Midlands

Daryl Tranter and Simon Footitt, of AMV Couriers are presented with the Company of the Year award by Tony McAndrew, from One Insurance Solution

AMV named Company of the Year in Transport Awards 2014

A WOLVERHAMPTON business has been recognised for its success over the past year with a national industry award.

AMV Couriers, a family run courier business based in Wednesfield, scooped the Company of the Year category at the Transport Awards 2014, organised by Transport Exchange Group. The awards celebrates major achievements and best practice within the freight industry.

AMV Couriers' Daryl Tranter and Simon Footitt were presented with the award by Tony McAndrew, from One Insurance Solution, at the annual ceremony that took place at the Chesford Grange Hotel in Kenilworth in front of more than 300 industry professionals and business leaders.

The company was one of five winners nominated and voted for by almost 3,000 members of Courier Exchange and Haulage Exchange in recognition of their outstanding achievement in terms of customer service, operational performance and delivery.

Daryl Tranter, Transport Manager at AMV Courier, said: "The Courier Exchange has helped us get to where we are today, so we are incredibly grateful to the Transport Exchange Group for their ongoing support and presenting us with this much appreciated accolade."

The Transport Awards, now in their 12th year, are organised by Transport Exchange Group.